IT Read the following Remarkable Cure performed by BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA :

New-Vore Oct. 29, 1842. Mr. C. O. Bristol—Sir: The motive that prompts me to address these lines to you, arises from a conviction paramount to that of mere praise of your valuable Sarsaparilla, for if that was my desire I should fail in the attempt, for I feel as though it would require a more powerful pen than mine to do justice to the high claims of so valuable a medicine as Bristol's Sarsaparilla.

It is the obligation I owe as one of the vast family of man to these like well as the same of the sast family of man to the sast fa ces me, without solicitation, to make known to the world what has been an effectual remedy when and where the hope of a cure was almost extinct.

I had been informed that you were to visit this city this fall, when I expected to have the pleasure of stating to you what your Sarsaparilla has done for me, but in this I was disappointed, you having left the city before I knew it; I have therefore taken this method to inform you, and through you, all who may desire to know what my afflictions were and also what has proved an antidote to the same.

I was attacked with Scrofula in a very alarming form that for years ince which street aridly throughout my

I was attacked with Scrottina in a very attributed from about five years since, which spread rapidly throughout my bead, face and throat, internal and external; there were several holes in the roof of my mouth and about the palate, which was nearly destroyed—my speech and hearing so much affected as to leave but little hope that those senses would ever return to me again as they now are. One of my ears was partly destroyed, my nose and the greater part of my face to all human appearance must meet the ame fate.

My nerves were dreadfully affected so as to deprive to of rest or sleep that was any thing like natural, but as one frenzied I passed my sleepless nights and wearisome days. My lower extremities were deathly cold and inanimate. ly feet were greatly extended in size from what was called Dropsy, and in addition to this, for many years I was af-flieted with Piles in their most severe and distressing form, which is now removed, together with most of my great af-flictions, through the use of your Sarsaparilla alone, after having the best medical treatment the city afforded.

I enquired the cause of so strange treatment, I hav-ing been a subscriber for the Sun from the first number to the present time; believing, as I did, that I was entitled to the same privilege with others in giving amblicity to the the same privilege with others in giving publicity to that which I considered to be my dutyto the community, as well as of great importance to the afflicted, that they might know what to apply as a safe and sure remedy. But I was told that my letter could not go in the Sun at any rate. I was also told that if I would wait three months they might put it in the Sun for me. I then left the office.

The Poor Man's Friend!-Such is the title which has been universally given to that excellent remedy for sickness, called "DR. RUSH'S INFALLIBLE HEALTH PILLS."

The agent for their sale in this city, whose office is at 30 Ann street, is in the daily receipt of valuable testimonials of the speedy and perfect cures which they have effected. A letter, which has just come to hand from Poughkeepsie, states that a poor man, who had been afflicted with erysipelas for several years, who had been to many doctors, and had taken Brandreth's, Evans's, Moffat's, Peters's, Beckwith's Parr's, and other Pills, without the least good, was restered to as complete health as he ever enjoyed by a single box of these Infallable Health Pills. This statement is not made without the ability to prove it It is not made out of a desire to detract from the merits of another remedy in general use, but to show how much more reliance may be placed on a medicine invented by so distinguished a physician as Dr. Rush, than on that which is family. A dose of them administered in season may save a long Docter's bill. A dozen boxes can be purchased for less money than many Doctors charge for a single visit. They may be taken freely, without the least apprehension. When used for indigestion, they never cause costiveness, but leave the alimentary canal in a healthy state. Their effect is to purify the blood, to clear the head, and to inspire vivacity and good spirits. A minister of the gospel, who has been ing worked, in his case, a perfect cure. Indeed they have
